CONFIRMATION DATE 15th September 2018

Located on the rugged west coast of Scotland, the legendary Turnberry hotel and its famous links courses opened in 1906 as the world's first golf resort. This instantly recognizable traditional Edwardian building is one of the most spectacular destinations for a golf break. Following a recent multi-million pound refurbishment, Trump Turnberry offers lavish accommodation, with many rooms having views over Turnberry's famous links to the sea and beyond, and some of the finest golf facilities around.

THE AILSA COURSE | PAR 71 | 5,919m

Named after the third Marquess of Ailsa, this course has a special place in golf history. Home to four Open Championships, and the site of the amazing 'Duel in the Sun' between Nicklaus and Watson. The newly redesigned links on the glorious Ayrshire coastline is one of the finest golfing destinations in the world.

KING ROBERT THE BRUCE COURSE | PAR 72 | 6,498m

The King Robert the Bruce Course will be will be relaunched in July 2017 with a stunning new layout. Formerly known as The Kintyre Course, the course will consist of some of Ayrshire's finest links holes, with undulating greens and glorious fairways enjoying breath-taking views of the Firth of Clyde and the famous Turnberry Lighthouse.

TRUMP TURNBERRY'S ICONIC LIGHTHOUSE SUITE.

THE TURNBERRY LIGHTHOUSE HAS BEEN HERALDED AS A LEGENDARY BEACON TO PASSING SHIPS AND TO GOLFERS FROM ACROSS THE GLOBE. NOW, IT IS ALSO HOME TO ONE OF THE WORLD'S FINEST SUITES.

Amidst golfing history, it sits proudly in this secluded spot, a peaceful haven away from the bustle of day-to-day life

Standing at almost 80ft tall, The Turnberry Lighthouse was designed by celebrated lighthouse engineers David and Thomas Stevenson, relatives to author and poet Robert Louis Stevenson. The foundation of the lighthouse sits on the ruins of the 13th century Turnberry Castle, where folklore suggests the King of Scots, Robert the Bruce, was born.

Situated on the rugged Ayrshire coastline on the cusp of the Irish sea, The Turnberry Lighthouse Suite is located between the 9th and 10th hole on the Championship Ailsa course. Elegant in its décor and grand in its aura, it offers breathtaking views across the Irish sea to the Isle of Arran and beyond.

With two bedrooms, each with its own private balcony, the rooms are tastefully decorated in rich mahogany, gold leaf and complemented by indigenous fabrics and furnishings. The Turnberry Lighthouse Suite also features a private sitting room with a dining table and a games table.

During your stay choose from two opulent experiences, tailored to your individual needs – The Stevenson Experience and The King of Scots Experience.

2 x Single occupancy: add £1,300 / night / person

2 x Double occupancy: add £630 / night / person
